Gas Monkey Foundation Makes Large Donation to Benefit Boys and Girls Haven

January 29, 2015 - Louisville, KY – Boys & Girls Haven was the proud recipient of a $10,000 donation from the Gas Monkey Foundation during last month's Ancient Order of Hibernian's Annual Christmas party at Molly Malone's Pub & Restaurant in Louisville, KY.

Boys & Girls Haven is a private non-profit agency dedicated to serving victims of abuse, neglect and/or abandonment. The generous gift from Gas Monkey Foundation will be used to support its vocational training program for homeless young adults and foster teens at risk of homelessness upon aging out of foster care.

The vocational training program is organized into three phases. Students begin in phase one, which focuses on using horses for therapy and teaching basic job skills. Once students have mastered basic job skills, they move on to phase two, which pairs them with an internship in the community. Students finish the program in phase three, which focuses on finding them a good paying job with benefits in the community.

The Gas Monkey Foundation is a Texas nonprofit corporation organized and operated exclusively to provide support to established charitable organizations across the country. The foundation helps established 501(c)(3) organizations at the local and national scale. Current charities range from those that benefit the environment and wildlife to those that help in the fight against human trafficking.

“We are so grateful to Gas Monkey Foundation for choosing to support our work and our mission,” said Jeff Hadley, CEO of Boys & Girls Haven. “Together, we are helping to heal young lives.”

Anyone can donate their car, truck, motorcycle, RV, etc. to Gas Monkey Foundation online. Gas Monkey Foundation plans to raise funds through philanthropic events in the future.
